

AUNT SUSAN AND UNCLE BRUCE #5

Aunt Susan's very creative on that you can bet,
So it's not strange in a frame shop, she and Uncle Bruce met.
They love Halloween; they have a party every year,
Uncle Bruce builds coffins which gives me a scare.
Lights twinkle in the backyard; Aunt Susan sews the attire,
Every year she dresses up as a creepy vampire.
Aunt Susan, Uncle Bruce our love will thrive,
Join me up here and light candle #5.

MEADOWBROOK FRIENDS #9

I have wonderful friends from Meadowbrook School,
Our class trip to France was unbelievably cool.
There was the Apple Festival and our class play,
Shhhhh! don't tell our teachers or parents.... we text all day.
Hanging at the Burger Joint...on our Fridays in town,
Boy were we nervous when the bus broke down.
Whenever I need you, you guys are there
I love that there is so much we share.
My Meadowbrook friends, I think you're all fine,
Do me the honor of lighting candle #9.
